

166

A LIST of those who are committed to Newgate, and other Prisons, for High Treason, and Treasonable Practices, against the King and Government.

Committed to the Tower.

THE Earl of Oxford, the Lord Lansdown, and Ld. Powis;
the first for High Treason.

Committed to Newgate.

Mr. Pace, a Wollen-draper, for Treasonable Practices against the King and Government, in behalf of the Pretender, insomuch that it's thought to amount to High Treason.

Mr. Smith of the Live-Guards, for having the Pretender's Commission found upon him, as it's said

Mr. Gibson, an Ensign, for the same

Mr. Bailly a Live-Guardman; but since releas'd.

John Lincoler, Sergeant of Dragoons.

Jeremiah Sullens a

Dragoon

Henry Down the same.

Dan. Donnay another,

Joseph Silver of the Foot Guards. 7 of em for High Treason, in endeavouring to corrupt their Brother Soldiers, and draw them into the Interest of the Pretender.

Mr. White. Mr. Harris; both for Treasonable Practices.

Mr. King, an Undertaker, on suspicion of Treason.

Mr. Maurice, on suspicion of being a Popish Priest.

Mr. Francis Francia, a noted Jew, on suspicion of holding Correspondence with the King's Enemies.

Mr. Joseph Seriven, a Sergeant of the Militia for Middlesex, for Villanous and Treasonable Words, viz. That in a week or Fortnights time there would be such Work in England as never was; and that the Massacre in Ireland would be a Fool to it; and that there was One Man that he would cut down, and make one side of his Head hang upon one Shoulder, and the other side of his Head hang upon the other Shoulder; and that we shall have the King of Hearts quickly, and then we will send the Hanover Granadiers to the Devil.

Mr. Drake a Jeweller, in Earls Court, Drury Lane; pursuant to the late Act.

Mr. Clifton, Inn-keeper, at the Black-Horse in Great Queen Street, on suspicion, &c.

Mr. la Fevre, a French Papist and Goldsmith in Shandois-
Street, on suspicion of ill Practices

25 Papists and Jacobites. who refus'd taking the Oaths to K.
George, committed by the Lord Lieutenant and Justices of Middlesex.

Mr. Parrot, for drinking the Pretender's Health, by the name of James III

Committed to New Prison.

Mr. Woodford an Attorney of Wharfedale.

Mr. Hall, Minister of Finchley. Both pursuant to the late Act.

Ch. Hornby a Hawker, for selling seditious Pamphlets.

Mr. — the Spaniard, that keeps a Victualling house on Hampstead Heath, for being a Papist, and refusing the Oaths appointed to be taken.

Committed into Custody of the Sergeant at Arms,

Mr. Harley, the E. of Oxford's Nephew. for Reasons alledg'd
by the Parliament.

Mr. Prior likewise order'd into close Custody by the Parliament, for High Misdemeanours against the Government, and prevaricating with that August Assembly, &c.

Committed to the Gatehouse.

Col. Paul, of the Guards

— Hornby, Esq; on suspicion of Writing a scandalous Pamphlet call'd: English Advice to the Freeholders, &c.

Mr. Wats a Bookseller, in Duke Street

Mr. Harding a Silk Dyer in Duke Street

Mr. Rochford, Victualler, in Red Lyon Street

Mr. Arthur, Barber, in Wild Street, for refusing the Oaths, &c.

In Custody of Messengers,

Earl of Fersy,

Earl of Scarisdale,

Lord Duplin,

} On suspicion of evil Practices.

Mr. Harvey of Comb, a Member of Parliament for Clithero in Lancashire, who stabb'd himself, but not mortally

Mr. Doly, a Cook, in Wild Street.

Chas. Ford, Esq; formerly writer of the Gazette

Mr. Ansell, a Member of Parliament for Lancaster in Cornwall

Mr. Crawley, the late Sir Ambrose's Son; but since releas'd, after Examination

Mr. Cockson, a noted Grocer in Bread Street

Sir John Packington, Member of Parliament Worcester-shire

Mr. Maud, a Wollen-Draper in Smithfield, for evil Practices

Sir R. Vyvian; on suspicion of corrupt Practices

Mr. Ozinda, who keeps a Chocolate House next St. James's House.

Sir W. Wyndham, Et. who has surrendred himself to His Majesty's Clemency